Engage Rotary . . . Change Lives!

from President Jeff Redeker

Happy March to everyone. Unfortunately, we got rained out of the Patriots Day Parade, but we have many great events and opportunities to volunteer coming up. As many of you know we are still actively looking for persons to join Jay Andrus in working with the Friendship Shelter's Guest Chef program. Kerri Redeker is working on our literacy project and dictionaries to the 3rd graders here in town and there will be opportunities to assist. We are in full swing with Community Grant Committee and Dave Norton leading his committee.

We are also at the beginning stages of planning another mixer at the Marine Room as we did last fall, which is another opportunity to get involved and get to know the many new members that have joined us recently. We also want to remember that Grapes for Grads IX is on May 4th, 2014 this year and we will beginning to get tickets and marketing materials out to the community. Check out the www.grapesforgrads.com website that Steve Dotoratos has put together. If you are interested in technology, Joe Alvarez is working on an update to our website, but also working with Rotarians on that want to assist with updates to technology for our club. So many ways we have opportunities to be involved.

One item I wanted to bring up as we move towards spring and beyond is the motto for this year with Rotary. It is Engage Rotary...Change Lives. Sometimes change is big or small and everyone's perception of that change is different. An item that came to my attention recently was our sponsorship of our Rotary Little League Team. This is our 60th year of sponsoring the Rotary Little League Team. Pretty impressive, but what is more impressive that the longevity of our sponsorship, which is amazing, is all the persons we have touched along the way and lives we have changed because of Engaging Rotary. So I just share with you that big or small...Engage Rotary and Change Lives. Again Happy March.

PREMIER CLUB - IGNITE PROGRAM

Congratulations to all our new members for this Rotary year. Our club has reached Premier Club status and leads the district in Ignite points!

Let's all welcome and get to know these new Rotarians - they have all joined committees and are contributing to the success of our club. Keep bringing guests to our meetings so we can continue to grow!
